

Format of the paper

1. Title page – with name and address of the author(s) including contact details, Declaration about the originality of the paper. Do NOT use prefixes like Dr. Prof. etc before the names.
2. Second page – Title, Abstract, Keywords (8 to 10 words)
3. Third page onwards – Introduction, Literature review, Problem statement, Purpose of the paper, Methodology, Findings, Conclusions, References. Each of those should appear with clear section headings or subheading. Running text should be in single column only.
4. Last page – Authors brief bio-data (about 125 to 150 words) as running text paragraph. Include email ID.
5. Tables and figures – To be included at the proper places within the body of the paper with appropriate titles and serial numbers.
6. Strictly avoid footnotes, endnotes, superscripts, 3-D figures, shaded figures, cut and pasted images, photographs, blurred images and colored images.