SDM IMD gets BSIS certification

MYSURU, DHNS: Shri Dharmasthala Manjunatheshwara Institute for Management Development (SDM IMD) has secured Business School Impact System (BSIS) certification by European Federation for Management Development (EFMD).

With this, SDM IMD has become the second B-school in India and the first in South India to get the BSIS impact stamp for its contribution to education process, society and regional system, since 25 years. Birla Institute of Management Technology, Noida, is the first institution in India, to receive the EFMD certification, said M V Sunil, media officer, SDM IMD.
