

Food Carnival 2014 at SDMIMD

Agrahara: Shri Dharmasthala Manjunatheshwara Institute for Management Development (SDMIMD), which is known for its fun-filled activities with active participation from the student community, had organised a food carnival recently. The student mess committee which manages the SDMIMD mess had organised the event. Students had put up 13 food stalls which had dishes from around India.

Gangaram Sharma, Executive Chef of Hotel Pai Vista, Mysore, inaugurated the carnival. The food stalls showcased the special food preparations made exclusively by the students.

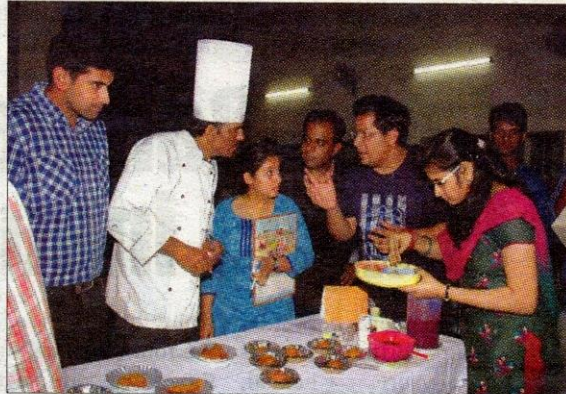

Judges were seen keenly listening to young, amateur chefs at SDMIMD food carnival 2014

The food stalls were judged by the chief guest Sharma and members of the student mess committee Achala Simha and Prithiv. Kerala Kitchens emerged as winners of the Food fiesta!

The most interesting part of this food carnival was pricing of the items and promotional methods used to attract the buyers. Students got an opportunity to implement classroom learning in real life situations.

food carnival 2014. Bong Connections stood second and third place was secured by Anokha. The winners will receive the cash prize in appreciation of their performance during the Republic Day celebrations on Jan 26.

CT BUREAU