'Diamond' rating to SDMIMD by QS-IGauge-India

Mysuru, September 11:- Shri Dharmasthala Manjunatheshwara Institute for Management Development (SDMIMD), Mysuru, has been awarded the highest level of 'Diamond' rating among the management institutes of India by the QS-IGauge-India, the India specific rating agency for the Quacquarelli Symonds, London.

Quacquarelli Symonds (QS) World University Rankings and the Higher Education Institutes Ranking have universal acceptance across the world in the fraternity of higher education institutions, corporate employers and among the student community. The rating has examined several parameters relevant to management education and given that overall ranking based on an independent study.

SDMIMD was also awarded the Business School Impact System (BSIS) certification by the European Foundation for Management Development (EFMD) in January 2020 and the EFMD Accreditation for the SDMIMD's PGDM programme has been successfully renewed in February 2020 for a period of 3 years.

It is relevant to mention here that during these COVID-19 restriction months, SDMIMD could complete full admissions for the 2-year PGDM programme 2020-22 and the classes have commenced in the online mode, stated a press release from Dr Sunil M V, assistant professor and media officer, SDMIMD. (NGB)
