STATING that modern practices and use of technology should be welcomed as great facilitators of learning, Dharmadhikari of Shri Kshethra Dharmasthala and chairman of SD-MIMD Dr D Veerendra Heggade said it should not come about at the expense of core values like integrity, reverence, gratitude and social responsibility.

Speaking at the first annual convocation of the post graduate certificate in management (PGCM) programme held virtually here on Wednesday, Heggade stressed on the educational system which upholds the Indian values. "Young managers should have temperamental framework in leading a life of fulfilment and at the same time be successful in their avocations," he said.

He opined that New Education Policy (NEP) has several postulates, which are practised by us ever since it forayed into education. Dr Heggade awarded the post graduate certificate in management to 11 students of the AICTE approved batch. Bhargav G Upadhyay bagged the gold medal for overall excellence.

SDMIMD director Dr N R Parasuraman, deputy director and chairperson, PGCM programme, Dr H Gayathri and others were present.
