

Keep Indian traditions alive, urges Heggade

Mysuru: Shri Kshethra Dharmasthala dharmadhikari and chairman of Shri Dharmasthala Manjunatheshwara Institute for Management Development (SDMIMD) Dr D Veerendra Heggade on Wednesday said Indian educational system must reflect its values and highlight the virtues of spirit for integrity, reverence, gratitude, and social responsibility for betterment of mankind.

He was delivering the SDM IMD convocation address virtually. He asked students not only to excel in their chosen field, corporate or own ventures but also keep the Indian tradition, values, ethos and virtues alive. TNN
