

Food Carnival at SDM-IMD

Mysore, Jan.18- Students of Shri Dharmasthala Manjuantheswara Institute for Management Development (SDM-IMD) had organised 'Food Carnival 2013' at their campus at the foothill of Chamundi here on Jan.11.

The activity involved purchase of commodities, supply chain, production, time management and marketing of delicacies. There were 18 food stalls in total where dishes from almost all the States of India were on sale. The most sought-after dishes were the 'Guguni' from Orissa and 'Pav bhaji' from Mumbai.

The carnival was inaugurated by Gangaram Sharma, Executive-Chef, Hotel Pai Vista. Sharma appreciated the students effort. The taste, marketing of stall, product presentation, process management and their team work were considered for judging the stall.

Team 'Vicious & Delicious' won the first place and 'Exquisko Dolce' stood second.

The student co-mmittee in-charge of Institute Mess conducted the Food Carnival.
