

3-Day Workshop on Good Governance

SDMIMD in association with Mysore Chapter of SIRC of The Institute of Company Secretaries of India, Mysore, is organizing 3-Day workshop on "Good Governance - A Supreme Mantra For Multi-Skilled Professional" during September 20-22, 2013 at SDMIMD, Mysore.

Introduction:

Term 'GOVERNANCE' is as old as human civilization. Until recent times, 'governance' was largely used in the context of the State. In 21st century, governance is interpreted in wider connotation to include State as well as Business Organisation, whether smaller or bigger. Governance describes the mechanisms an organization uses to ensure that its constituents follow its established processes and policies. Governance is primarily to ensure compliance with laws, integrity, ethics and policies. Governance relates to decisions that define expectations, grant power, or verify performance. Four pillars of good governance are Fairness, Accountability, Transparency and Independence. Effort in this three days workshop is to analyze nuances of GOVERNANCE and examine how "Good Governance Is A Supreme Mantra For Multi-Skilled Professional"
