

International conference: SDM Institute for Management Development will organize a two-day international conference on 'Emerging Trends in Finance and Accounting' from August 9. The conference will witness a confluence of academicians, researchers, and practicing executives presenting their research work on diverse and contemporary themes in finance and accounting. Participants across India and abroad are expected to take part. Call: 9880364121.