

SDMIMD student receives IFLA award in Kolkata

The awards was presented to Deepak Nesarikar by Ambarish Dasgupta, partner and head management consulting at KPMG India, vice chairman of SREI Infrastructure Finance Sunil Kanoria and Dr Amit Mitra Honorable Minister of Finance and Excise, Govt of West Bengal is also seen.

Agrahara: Deepak Nesarikar, student of the PGDM 2012-14 Batch of SDMIMD received the IFLA award and secured 4th place among the top-6 papers, selected by Klynveld Peat Marwick Goerdeler India, the Talent Partner for the International B-School Open Paper Writing Competition organised by ABP Pvt Ltd, in Kolkata recently.

Other top-five papers were from Indian Institute of Management Calcutta (IIM-C), Indian Institute of Management Kohzikhoda (IIM-K), Mudra Institute of Communication, Ahmedabad (MICA), Xavier's Labor Relation Institute (XLRI), Jharkhand and K J Somaiya Institute of Management Studies and Research, Mumbai. SDMIMD secured 4th place by competing with the top B-schools.

Nesarikar's article "Empowerment and Social Businesses" has been published in IFLA 2013 Compendium. The article focused on how to bring empowerment with social businesses.

DT BUREAU